E. H. CALDWELL TO REMAIN PRESIDENT COMMERCIAL CLUB

Agrees to Remain as Head of Club and Directors to Give Full Cooperation.

The directors of the Commercial Club have refused to consider the resignation of E. H. Caldwell as president of the club. A special committee composed of W. C. Bailey, L. R. Lucina and H. T. Baldwin last night reported at a special directors' meeting that they had conferred with Mr. Caldwell and that he has agreed to remain as head of the club, conditionally upon the directors giving him the fullest cooperation in the work. This will be done, state the directors.

Mr. Caldwell had advised the directors that owing to the fact that his business required the larger part of his time, that he would be unable to continue as president of the club unless all of the directors helped more in carrying along the work of the club. At first he presented his resignation outright but later he was persuaded by the committee to reconsider, which he did.

Eleven of the eighteen directors were present at last night's meeting. H. W. Statton vice-president presided. The directors discussed informally the condition brought about by the European war that has placed difficulties in cotton growers and has, in turn, affected the price of cotton. A suggestion by Joe Hirsch that a committee from the club go out into the country and urge the farmers to diversify by planting less cotton and raising hogs, beef, cattle and feedstuff met with approval of the directors and it was voted to take this proposal up at the next regular meeting and to formulate some definite plan of action along that line.

Present at last night's meeting were H. W. Statton, P. B. Secorist, Chas. Dale, W. C. Bailey, Joe Hirsch, H. W. McInnes, Robert Oliver, D. H. Baldwin, H. L. Shapard, J. B. Clum, Mrs. Gilbert McInnes and L. R. Lucina and Secretary Arthur.

MANY AT Y. W. C. A. MEETING
WILLIAM HAY, Wm. Aug. 25.

Several hundred young women, from the States of the middle west and some of the provinces of Canada, have arrived here, each with her full quota of trunks and traveling bags, to take part in the annual district conference of the Young Women's Christian Association. The conference was opened today and will be continued until September 4. The place of meeting is the association camp on Lake Texoma. The most of those in attendance are superintendents or other officials of city and college associations. The sessions will be devoted largely to an exchange of opinions on the methods of association work.

SERVICES IN MEMORY LATE POPE PIUS X. CONDUCTED AT ST. PATRICKS YESTERDAY

SERMON EULOGIZING THE LATE PONTIFFIAL HEAD OF ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH WAS PREACHED BY BISHOP NUSSBAUM BEFORE CONGREGATION THAT PACKED ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.

With a congregation present which taxed the seating capacity of the auditorium, the memorial services for the late Pope, Pius X., were held last night in St. Patrick's Cathedral. Rev. P. J. Nussbaum, Bishop of the diocese of Corpus Christi, officiating, with possibly 500 people present, both Catholic and non-Catholic.

The occasion for this ceremony was to appropriately hold services to the memory of the deceased Pope the news of whose death was a great blow to his subjects all over the world. At this time, Bishop Nussbaum preached the panegyric, or sermon eulogizing the deceased pontiff in an able manner. The pontiffial high mass of requiem, which is the service said over the dead, was held yesterday morning in the cathedral, leaving the memorial service, with the eulogy of the late head of the church, until last night.

Bishop Nussbaum was assisted in performing the ceremonies incident to the service by Rev. Father Gonsky, C. P., Rev. Father Kibben, minister, Rev. Father Solana, cross-bearer, and Rev. Father Mark as master of ceremonies.

The ceremonies were opened last night by an impressive funeral march in which officials to the ceremonies marched to the altar. The church was draped with black and white crepe.

significant of the sorrow of the people for their departed head. Following the funeral march, the choir, under the leadership of Francis Rossmann, sang the hymn, "Jesu Dulcis Memoria." The funeral rites were then said in English by the bishop and his assistants in a very impressive manner, with the incidental ceremonies. A beautiful solo was then rendered by Mrs. Erel Minahan.

The pontiff of the bishop, next claimed the attention of the audience for half an hour, during which time he eulogized the late Pope, Pius X., in a manner which impressed his hearers from the start, with the seeming probability of his knowing the Pope throughout his life, so conversant was he with the pastoral qualities, virtues and accomplishments of the deceased pontiff. Bishop Nussbaum sketched the life of the Pope from the time he entered the ministry as a priest, until by his untiring efforts and belief in the faith he was gradually promoted to the office of cardinal, to be elected Pope by the cardinals of the world following the death of Leo XIII. in 1903. The sermon was interesting throughout, which combined with perfect diction a thorough knowledge of the subject and masterful oratory, made the event one of long remembrance to the minds of those present at the service.

WHY WOMEN SUFFER.

Many Corpus Christi Women are Learning the Cause.

Women often suffer, not knowing the cause. Backache, headache, dizziness, nervousness.

Irregular urinary passages, weakness, languor.

Each a torture of itself. Together hint at weakened kidneys. Strike at the root—get to the cause. No other remedy more highly endorsed than Doan's Kidney Pills.

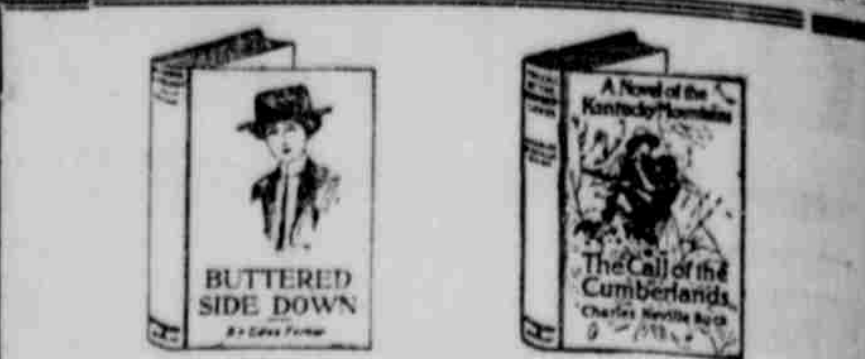

Recommended by thousands. Endorsed at home. Here's convincing testimony from a Corpus Christi citizen.

Mrs. J. R. Wilkinson, 215 S. Arroyo St., Corpus Christi, Texas, says: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills strongly as they did me a wonderful amount of good. I was in bad shape with my kidneys and pain through my back and sides. Doan's Kidney Pills acted as a tonic to my system and made me strong and well."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Wilkinson had—the remedy backed by home testimony. See all stores. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SLIM CALDWELL
By A. M. C. ORRIGAN.

RED MCGEE SAYS:

Since Red McGee's book, "Slim Caldwell," has just become a best seller, it is no wonder that the book is so popular. It is a story of a man who was a champion boxer, and who was defeated by a man who was a champion boxer. The book is a story of a man who was a champion boxer, and who was defeated by a man who was a champion boxer.

The end of Slim's story was a good one. He was a champion boxer, and he was defeated by a man who was a champion boxer. The book is a story of a man who was a champion boxer, and who was defeated by a man who was a champion boxer.

Red McGee

He set a diary pace last spring. The book is a story of a man who was a champion boxer, and who was defeated by a man who was a champion boxer.
